

Granite Setts

Our Silver Grey Granite from Portugal is a premium natural stone known for its durability, timeless appeal, and consistent silvery-grey coloration. This granite features a flamed top surface, produced by high-temperature treatment that creates a lightly textured, slip-resistant finish, ideal for exterior and high-traffic applications. The split or tumbled sides retain the stone's natural character, offering a rustic, handcrafted look that complements both contemporary and traditional designs.

Key Features:

- Origin: Portugal
- Colour: Uniform silver-grey with subtle mineral variations
- Top Finish: Flamed – textured, non-slip, and weather-resistant
- Edges/Sides: Split or tumbled for a natural, rugged aesthetic
- Durability: Highly resistant to frost, abrasion, and heavy wear
- Applications: Paving, walkways, patios, pool surrounds, steps, wall cladding, landscaping

This versatile granite combines modern performance with natural elegance, making it a preferred choice for architectural and landscaping projects that demand both beauty and longevity.
