

Yorkstone Setts

When you buy Natural York Stone Setts from Arbour Landscape Solutions, you are supporting UK industry. These British-sourced setts withstand much more wear and tear than their concrete equivalent, and the natural colouring and variations set these apart from any imitations.

Specifying and buying UK-sourced landscaping materials is undoubtedly one of the easiest and best ways of lowering the carbon footprint of your landscaping project. You are helping to sustain English jobs and vastly reducing the number of miles that your setts will travel to get to site.

These Natural York Stone Setts just get better with age and will help to bed your hard landscaping in with the surrounding environment. They adapt well to any garden design style and can easily be combined with any other landscaping material. Natural York Stone Setts are great for courtyards, patios, paths, edging and features.

Natural colour variations including buff's browns and grey tones - please don't hesitate to request samples so that you can assess their beauty for yourself.
